

FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

TIMELY WARNING BULLETIN

Date: August 28, 2019

The Florida International Police Department (FIUPD) is aware of a social media post that suggests a threat to members of the FIU community. We are actively investigating the incident with the cooperation of our federal, state and local law enforcement partners. At this time we have no reason to believe that there is an imminent threat; however, FIUPD has implemented a plan to ensure the safety of our FIU community. We ask that anyone aware of any information that may shed some light on the creator of the post please contact FIUPD immediately at 305-348-2626 or, in the event of an emergency, 305-348-5911. Please remain vigilant at all times and if you see something, say something.

Update:

FIUPD along with local and federal law enforcement partners continue to actively investigate this case. While the investigation has still not yielded anything to indicate that a threat is imminent to FIU, we are still working to identify the individual that posted the threat. To help alleviate any concern our FIU community may have we have implemented a safety plan for the class and have increased our police presence in the Graham Center. If you have any information that could assist us with this investigation please contact the FIPUD at 305-348-2626, or you can contact Miami-Dade and Florida Keys Crime Stoppers at www.crimestoppersmiami.com or at 305-471-8477. Tips received through Crime Stoppers are eligible for a reward of up to $1,000.
